PLEASE READ THE RULES ON THE BACK PAGE

Show Rules

1. All riders must wear a properly fitted ASTM/SEI helmet at all times while mounted.
2. All competitors must sign (or have a parent/guardian sign for a minor) an equine activities waiver.
3. Your presence at the show indicates that you have read these rules and agree to abide by them.
4. The organizers, management, staff, volunteers, helpers, judges, and White Rose Equestrian, will not be held responsible or liable for any loss, damage, accident, or injury caused to any person, property, or livestock while attending the show.
5. Competitors and spectators take part at their own risk.
6. The judge's decision in each class is final.
7. Horses/ponies may enter more than once in any class except 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10.
8. The organizers reserve the right to refuse entries considered unsuitable for any class or to expel from the showground any person or horse/pony behaving in a manner likely to adversely affect others' safety and enjoyment.
9. Cruelty and/or excessive use of crops or spurs will not be tolerated.
10. All classes will be placed to 6th place except class 4.
11. If you borrow a horse from the barn, you must book and pay for your classes at least one week before the show date.
12. Dogs must be kept under strict control and on a leash at all times.
13. No cantering on the showground except in designated areas. Absolutely no galloping on the showground.

The organizers will do their utmost to ensure that everyone has an enjoyable and safe show day, but we need your co-operation to achieve this. Please read these rules carefully. Thank you.

Warning - Under North Carolina law, an equine activity sponsor or equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting exclusively from the inherent risks of equine activities. Chapter 99E of the North Carolina General Statutes.
